

Green Cars Come in all Colors

Seawater staffers can also be seen driving this hybrid throughout Arizona and Sonora. This car proudly proclaims (in both English and Spanish), "This Car is Green." The carbon emissions from this car are absorbed by a Seawater forest growing in Sonora, Mexico"

Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano, Sonora Governor Eduardo Bours, and Seawater Foundation founder Carl Hodges, took a short test drive at the Arizona Mexico Commission meeting held in Tucson in June 2005.
